The Electric League of Indiana provides the electrical industry with a multitude of educational programs across the state in issues that deal with the electrical community. Its program includes an annual trade show, networking opportunities, conferences, and a forum for its members for the betterment of the industry in the areas of application, safety, improvement and conservation. The Electric League of Indiana encourages voluntary adoption of high standards of integrity, honesty and competence so that the industry may better serve the public.

My firm hereby applies for membership in the Electric League of Indiana and agrees to support the objectives of the Association and pay the prescribed membership dues.
